

I greatly enjoy the traffic and weather service provided by XM Satellite radio. No local broadcaster provides these services as well as XM does. XM's services provide much more detail and are much more helpful than that provided by any local broadcaster.

In the world of capitalism XM has earned the fees they charge me by providing these services.

I hope that the government takes no action to restrict XM's ability to provide these services to me